

HOPES OF LONGTOWN

An independent village store & post office nestled in the foot of the black mountains

The elegantly curving roof conceals a truly diverse mix of stock at this popular family run village store.

A spirit of cooperation and promotion show in the aisles with locally made wines, ice-cream, ciders, liqueurs, water, cheeses, yoghurts, homemade cakes and even tofu available.

Not only are the everyday necessities in stock, but the environment is also cared for here. There is a comprehensive range of eco-friendly cleaning products, fair-trade goods and alternative remedies to salve the consciences of those concerned about the world around them.
